

THE TOWN OF OXFORD, MARYLAND WELCOMES THE SUMMER SEASON WITH CONCERTS IN THE PARK

Oxford Town Park is the ideal setting for a casual al fresco concert

Oxford, MD (June 3, 2011) – Nestled on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, the Town of Oxford may be diminutive (its population numbers less than 1,000), but its charm, big heart, and character are as grand as the Chesapeake itself. One of the best ways to experience all four: enjoy one of its many family-friendly, community-wide summertime events.

A prime candidate is a complimentary concert in Oxford Town Park. Residents and visitors alike are invited to enjoy the strains of live music at these relaxing gatherings, sponsored by the Oxford Business Association and staged right on the shore of the Tred Avon River.

The first, on Sunday, June 5, features the Mid-Shore Community Band, a local group made up of area residents who played in a high school band while growing up. Directed by Matt Fullerton, who was the band instructor at the local middle school for many years, the event starts at 3:00 p.m. The second concert is on Sunday, July 17 at 3:00 p.m. Local band Three Penny Opera – a Talbot County favorite comprised of five natives -- will play a little bit of everything, with a special emphasis on “oldies.”

The Town of Oxford and the Oxford Business Association welcome all comers to bring a blanket, a snack, and their high spirits – the only ingredients required to celebrate a classic summer pastime, music in the park.

The Town of Oxford, Maryland: docks, daydreams, discoveries, and so much more

About Oxford, Maryland:

The historic town of Oxford, Maryland, founded in 1683, is located in Talbot County on the Eastern Shore of the Chesapeake Bay. Until the American Revolution, Oxford was an international shipping center, surrounded by tobacco plantations and home to a number of prominent national figures. Later it thrived on oyster harvesting and packing and other watermen’s trades, even as tourism and leisure activities increased. It guards its peaceful personality, architectural integrity, and small-town virtues to this day, while warmly welcoming visitors from right next door and around the world. The Oxford Business Association welcomes inquiries by telephone (1-410-745-9023) and at its website (www.portofoxford.com); and the Talbot County Office of Tourism offers comprehensive information and trip planning services at its Easton office (1-410-770-8000) and on its website (www.tourtalbot.org).
